February Service Announcements

February 4 "Hymn Sing!"

Get ready for this lively service when we will sing some of our most loved hymns together. Mark Neiwirth will accompany us! What are your favorites? Let Pastor Jenny or Mark know, or just come and lend your voice to the joyful noise!

February 18th: "Why here, why now?"

Pocatello Unitarian Universalist Fellowship originated in a vision or dream shared by its founders. Let's talk about the dream as it manifested into ministry. What does this Fellowship represent in Pocatello, in Bannock County, in Idaho?

PUUF Aspirational Covenant

"May we be a compassionate religious community built on love and justice, exploring and celebrating the mysteries of life with reason, reverence, and courageous doubt. With conscious action, we can be the change we wish to see in the world."

*"Justice cannot be for one side alone, but must be for both."
— Eleanor Roosevelt*

PUUF has been officially recognized by the UUA as a Welcoming Congregation since 2011. PUUF membership is open to Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Questioning (LGBTQ) people, and to anyone else, regardless of religious background or ethnicity. Visit www.pocatellouu.org and see the 'About Us' page for more details.

PUUF is a Welcoming Congregation

Ordination Q & A

Pastor Jenny asked the PUUF board to approve a meeting of the congregation to vote to ordain her. We thought you might have some questions.

What is Ordination?

In general, ordination is the process by which individuals are consecrated, that is, set apart as clergy to perform various religious rites and ceremonies. The process and ceremonies of ordination vary by religion and denomination. The liturgy used at an ordination is sometimes referred to as an ordination (Wikipedia). In the Unitarian-Universalist Association, Ordination can only be bestowed upon an individual by a UU congregation with a vote. This is part of UU congregational polity.

What is congregational polity?

Polity is the way churches structure their authority. UUs have autonomous governance of individual congregations. One of the consequences of UU autonomy is that only congregations can ordain a minister.

Are there any qualifications for a UU minister?

For UU ministers, there is an intensive career assessment with psychological evaluation and recommendations that examine one's fitness for ministry. The recommendations go to the Ministerial Fellowship Committee at the UUA national offices in Boston. Prospective ministers obtain a MDiv. (Master of Divinity) from a school of theology. Pastor Jenny attended the Meadville Lombard Theology School in Chicago. Masters of Divinity study competencies in pastoral care, arts and aesthetics of worship, administration and governance, and serve an internship. Pastor Jenny Peek has been accepted into preliminary fellowship, the credentialing process established by the UUA.

At this time the UUA has approved Pastor Jenny for seeking ordination from a congregation. Ordination is official recognition of an individual's qualifications for ministry. With ordination Pastor Jenny will earn the title of Reverend.

What is the difference between ordination and installation?

Installation is a congregation calling an ordained minister to be their minister until retirement. Every minister seeks ordination, but not every minister seeks or desires installation. For PUUF, Pastor Jenny is our contract minister not seeking installation, but not yet ordained.

The PUUF Board has scheduled a special congregational meeting on March 18, 2018, for the purpose of voting on ordination of Pastor Jenny Peek.

PUUF Religious Exploration

The 4th Sunday February 25th RE Session will be "What is Full Week Faith?" Pastor Jenny will introduce the group to this Religious Exploration program. While it originates from an effort to reach families with children, much of the material may be of interest to youth and adults, and single friends or members of any age. Since Full Week Faith debuted in our Fellowship in December, some have wondered what it is, how to get it, and why do we have it? Pastor Jenny hopes to answer these questions and even brainstorm on ways to improve this very new approach to Religious Exploration.

For March 11 Jeff Shelton will facilitate the session on Mithraism: Ancient Roman Mystery Cult Mithraism was a religion practiced in the Roman Empire from the 1st to 3rd centuries A.D. chiefly by soldiers. Although some of the ritual practices of the cult are known, the beliefs of the cult were and are largely mysterious. Clues to what Mithraists believed have been found in the iconography of their temples. Jeff will inform us of what is presently believed about Mithraism.

Our Religious Exploration sessions are seeking individuals who would like to facilitate a discussion covering some aspect of religion, spirituality, or social justice at our RE sessions this winter/spring. At present all dates are available through most RE weeks of February, and all of March, April and May. We meet on the second and fourth Sundays of each month at 4pm at the church. If you have a topic within these subjects and would like to lead a discussion please contact Bob Gehrke at 208-680-4766 or email him at robertjmary_7@q.com with the topic and a suggested Sunday. Some sources to consider are the UU World, Touchstones, and other magazine articles, newspaper articles or books. All topics will be presented to the group for approval.

PUUF Website

The Board is in the process of updating the PUUF website. This will be a total rework using the UUA WordPress Theme. Look for it to come online in late February or early March. If you would like to submit suggestions or activity and event photos for possible use on the website, please email them to Richard Feuerborn and Mark Neiwirth at Website@PocatelloUU.org.

Many Colors of Stewardship

As we approach our traditional stewardship season, it is helpful to reflect on variety of ways we contribute to our congregation. All of us help with our time and talent in some way. We buy flowers for the altar, we lead an RE discussion, we send a birthday card, wash dishes, and everything in between. We also need stewardship in support of our minister, our building, and our activities. Pledging money annually is part of this picture, but it also includes donations, cleaning, repair, and this month, actual pictures. Our church office has undergone major improvements in the last year and this effort continues with a donation of art from Barbara Swanson's estate. Some of the works are by Barbara and some were part of her collection. Now their many colors will brighten with walls of our office space!

UUU Common Read Recommendations

Pastor Jenny will host a discussion per book, on "First Saturdays". First up, Centering (see below for description). Join the discussion, Saturday, March 3rd, at 9:30 a.m. Let Pastor Jenny know you're participating. Group size will determine if we reserve the small chapel or use our UU office. Prefer to stay home? Video call-in options are available! The challenges, the call, and the opportunity of this moment in Unitarian Universalism and in the broader US American society are compelling. Unitarian Universalists must be prepared and willing to look inward, examining, exploring, and acting to dismantle white supremacy culture in our association, in our congregations and groups, and in ourselves. At the same time, we must be prepared and willing to look outward and act to lift up Unitarian Universalist values in the political and civic challenges of our time.

1. Centering: Navigating Race, Authenticity, and Power in Ministry, edited by Mitra Rahnema (Skinner House, 2017), centers the stories, analyses, and insights of a number of Unitarian Universalist religious professionals of color as they explore how racial identity is made both visible and invisible in Unitarian Universalist communities.

2. Daring Democracy: Igniting Power, Meaning, and Connection for the America We Want, by Frances Moore Lappé and Adam Eichen, (Beacon Press, 2017) lifts up the importance of democracy itself. It examines the anti-democracy movement that has led to the Trump presidency, then offers a vision and call to action to save our democracy and to take our civic life to a place it has never been.

Centering offers help with the inner work of today's Unitarian Universalism; Daring Democracy provides a vision and practical guidance for advancing our justice-making work in the public square. We invite you to make time to read both, and to work with others to organize discussion groups in your UU community.

You may purchase both books from inSpirit: UU Book and Gift Shop. Both are also available as ebooks.
